

12th Annual Leadership Summit

Friday, March 21, 2025
Kalamazoo Country Club
7:30 am - 12:00 pm

OUR SPEAKERS

Ian Watts
Small Business Coach, SB Dream Coach

Ian achieved his dream of building a multi-million-dollar business at 26. From there, Ian raised millions in capital, launched multiple businesses, and helped thousands of business owners, leaders, and investors to transform their thinking and business approach to achieve their goals.

Dave Nemmers
Author & Business Leader

David is the former President/CEO of Midstate Security Company, a nationally recognized top 50 security integrator company. David's greatest strengths are culture development, team building with alignment of goals, and leadership. He thrives on challenges, particularly those that expand the company's reach that are consistent with the companies' values of integrity, innovation, and impact.

Chase Smith
Executive Director, Campus Outreach

Chase invests in students who are involved with fraternities and sororities by doing leadership and character development training, faith discussions, and mentoring. Chase has devoted considerable time developing leaders in this generation that will influence our communities and workplaces for good.

John Knowlton
C12 Chair in Kalamazoo and South Bend, Author and Business Leader

John's career has combined ministry and business. In 1998, John started a financial services firm, which grew to manage $1.25 billion in assets with a team of 60, including 15 partners, before he sold his interest. John and his wife are on staff at Stones Church in Kalamazoo.
